"Lacrosse Cures"
Charity 3v.3 Lax Tourney for All
July 25th, 2009

We are happy to announce our 5th Annual Charity Lacrosse Event, "Lacrosse Cures", July 25th, 2009! This is a competitive 3v.3 CHUMASH tourney to showcase talent and raise money for Big Brothers Big Sisters of Colorado Sports Buddies Program. 100% of the tournament profits will be going to benefit the BBBSC Sports Buddies Program. The BBBSC Sports Buddies program allows at risk youth an opportunity to get involved with all kinds of athletics, whether it's playing a game or attending a professional athletic event with a big brother or big sister. Athletics have played such a significant role in all of our lives; this is an excellent opportunity to expose others to the wonderful world of sports. Please visit biglittlcolorado.org for more information.

The tournament's mission: Quite simply, bring the Colorado lacrosse community together and get under privileged youth involved in sports.

What is Chumash Lax:

Chumash is played by two teams of 3 players each on the field. Each team may have 1-2 substitutes. There is one goal in the center of the field. The purpose of each team is to score on its respective side of the goal. There are NO goalies, but goalies are encouraged to attend as field players. You may have seen Chumash Lax featured at The Vail Shootout. For more details please visit www.CRSLAX.com
